Williams College Ltd Deposit Refund Policy

In accordance with the regulations set forth by Williams College Ltd, deposits submitted for academic programs are subject to the following refund policy:

Deposit Refund Conditions:

- If a student's visa application is refused, deposits are refundable barring £150 admin charges provided that all requisite documentation and information have been accurately and transparently provided to the college and UKVI throughout all stages.
- No refund will be issued if the visa application is declined due to the student withholding information or not disclosing all pertinent facts during the application process.

Refund Process:

- Upon confirmation of a visa refusal, the student is required to notify the college's admissions department promptly.
- The refund request must be submitted within [number of days/weeks] from the date of the visa refusal.
- The college will process the refund in accordance with the original payment method, deducting any administrative charges or processing fees applicable to the refund procedure.

Documentation Requirements:

To facilitate the refund process, students must provide official documentation confirming the visa refusal from the appropriate immigration authority.

Refund Exceptions:

- If the visa application is declined due to any discrepancy or omission of vital information by the student, resulting in a refusal, no deposit refund will be granted.
- Williams College Ltd is committed to fair and transparent practices. Please ensure all information provided during the application process is complete and accurate to avoid any potential issues with visa applications and deposit refunds.

For any inquiries or assistance regarding deposit refunds, please contact the college's admissions office.
